Memoriae

of 1962

Clear Creek School

Huntington, Indiana

Foreword

J. P. Lowell said, "Simple as it seems, it was a great discovery that the key of knowledge could turn both ways, that it could open, as well as lock, the door of power to the many."

The 1962 MEMORIAE is a chain of keys which open the doors of an eventful year at C.C.H.S. - - doors of hard work, fun, and achievements, the greatest achievement being the opening of the door of knowledge. If each key is wisely used, and each door even partially opened, the mind shall forever hold the key to that door.

The Memoriae Staff is happy to present

The 1962 Memoriae

accenting

"Knowledge is the key to success."

Looking through the keyhole of the door marked recreation, we find the G.A.A. The purpose of the G.A.A. is to carry on athletic and social activities for girls. By participation in G.A.A., the girls learn leadership, responsibility, and dependability, not only through sports, but also by sponsoring dances and other events.

The play centers around the guidance office of Pembroke High School. Mr. Warren, a very conservative person, has been guidance counselor for so many years that he considers the office his personal domain and the students' problems, his personal responsibility. Imagine his surprise when he learns that the school board has hired Miss Gardner as girls' counselor.
